Section III: Examination

You must have passed the CFP Certification Examination (Foundation Level) (formerly known as the AFP Certification Examination) before applying for AFP certification. Please fill in the month and year of your last examination.

Section IV: Experience

1. Experience Requirement

To apply for AFP certification, you must have a minimum of 1 year qualified work experience in financial planning.

Please refer to Appendix 1 for the definition of qualified work experience.

Other Requirements:

- a. Residency work experience requirement
Based on the declared residency status of the applicant, one year of relevant working experience must be gained in the region/country of residency.
- b. Valid time period for experience
Only experience gained up to ten years before or up to eight years after the date of the last CFP Certification Examination (Foundation Level) (formerly known as the AFP Certification Examination) will be considered. If the work experience is not fulfilled within this time frame, the application may be terminated.
- c. Part-time work experience
Part-time employment is credited towards the requirement on an hourly basis, with 2,000 hours representing the equivalence of one year full-time. Please indicate the total number of work hours claimed.

2. Experience Information

- a. You are required to provide details of your employment history in financial planning during the valid time period in chronological order.
- b. If you had several positions in the same company, please fill in separate pages to specify details in each position.
- c. Make copies of this section and attach additional sheets if necessary.
- d. An updated resume must be attached. (Please refer to Appendix 2 for the format.)

3. Experience Record Verification

The submitted experience record must be verified and attested by your current supervisor, or a member of the senior management, or the human resources manager of your current employer. If you are a sole proprietor, a third party product provider may verify your experience. In case if none of these individuals is able to do so because of insufficient information, a professional with approved credentials must attest your experience record instead. They must also provide their certificate or letter of good standing.

Appendix 3 shows a sample of complete Section IV on a particular position.

Section V: Declaration and Agreement

Please read the Declaration and Personal Data Agreement carefully before you sign the application form.

Section VI: Payment Details

1. Please enclose an application fee of HK$500 and appropriate first year certification fee (see point 4 & 5, in which, 5% will be contributed to IFPHK building fund) with this application.
2. The certification period ends by the end of each calendar year. If your application is successful, the first year certification fee will cover from the date of your approval to 31 December of the same year.
3. The renewal date is 1 January each year.
4. If you apply between January and June, please pay HK$1,100 for the first year certification fee (valid up to 31 December).
5. If you apply between July and December, please pay HK$550 for the first year certification fee (valid up to 31 December).
6. If your application is unsuccessful, the certification fee will be refunded to you in due course. Application fee is non-refundable.

Checklist

Please go through the checklist carefully and return it with your application form.

Acknowledgement of Receipt

1. Application form submitted by mail or by courier: acknowledgement of receipt sent by email.
2. Application form submitted in person: acknowledgement of receipt provided during the time of submission.

Definition of Qualified Work Experience

Qualified experience is the active use of knowledge and skill to provide¹ or teach² comprehensive financial planning advice to clients³ in accordance with IFPHK's Six Steps of Financial Planning Process (see table 1).

Six Steps of Financial Planning Process	Including.....
1. Establishing client-planner relationships	explaining the issues and concepts related to the personal financial planning process
2. Gathering client data and determining goals and expectations	interviewing or questioning the client about various aspects of his or her financial resources, obligations and expectations; determining your client's goals, needs and priorities; assessing your client's values and attitudes; and determining the client's time horizons and risk tolerance; collecting applicable client records and documents
3. Determining the client's financial status by analysing and evaluating client's information	analyzing and evaluating client data such as current cash flow needs, risk management, investments, taxes, retirement, employee benefits, estate planning and/or special needs
4. Developing and presenting the financial plan	presenting and reviewing the plan with the client; working with the client to ensure that the plan meets his or her goals and expectations, and revising the recommendations as necessary
5. Implementing the financial plan	coordinating with other professionals, such as accountants, attorneys, real estate agents, investment advisers, stock brokers and insurance agents
6. Monitoring the financial plan	discussing with the client any changes in his or her personal circumstances, evaluating changing tax laws, and making recommendations based on new or changing conditions

TABLE 1. IFPHK Six Steps of Financial Planning Process

¹ Directly supporting the delivery of comprehensive financial planning advice to clients may not be 100% recognized as qualified experience. Recognition is based on IFPHK's absolute sole discretion.

² For experience of teaching IFPHK Registered AFP Certification Education Program / CFP Certification Education Program or Program with IFPHK pre-approved transcript review status, all experience gained within the valid time period will be considered. As for other teaching experience (teaching finance related classes at degree or above level), all experience gained within the valid time period will be considered but there is a limit to the qualified work experience granted (a maximum of two years of qualified work experience could be granted).

³ "Clients" are individuals/corporations who/which engage a financial planning professional and for whom/which professional services are rendered. Pro-bono experience may be recognized, provided that there are clients AND you are acting as a financial planning professional who is capable and qualified to offer objective and comprehensive financial advice to or for the benefit of clients for achieving their financial planning objectives.
